PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR SUBPOENA OF DISCIPLINARY FILES

NOW COMES the plaintiff, Leon Robinson, who respectfully moves this Honorable Court to grant plaintiff's motion for a subpoena to issue for the Internal Affairs files of Detective James Wyse, and Detective John A. Martel from the Boston Police Department pursuant to Rule 17 of the Rule of Federal Civil Procedure, and pursuant to Rule 45 of the Rule of Federal Civil Procedure. See United States v. Bailey, 834 F.2d 218 (1st Cir. 1987); and See Commonwealth v. Wanis, 426 Mass. 639, 643-644 (199).

Plaintiff seeks to have this Honorable Court review the files to determine whether they has ever been disciplined for any act of dishonesty, failure to produce exculpatory evidence or any other acts that might effect their credibilitys as police officer.

in this case. In support of this request plaintiff states the following:

1. Detective Wyse is the lead investigator in the instant case. And Detective John A. Martel was the officer that requested for the Search Warrant in the instant case. Therefore, their professional credibility will be one of the issues that this Court will need to evaluate before deciding against Mr. Robinson's Civil Action, or Mr. Robinson's guilt or innocence in the ~~xx~~ instant Federal Civil Action case. This is a perfectly proper area of cross-examination. See Smith v. Illinois, 390 U.S. 129 (1967); also See Commonwealth v. Murchinson, 18 Mass. 58 (1994).

2. Plaintiff submits that Detective Wyse's failure to provide a turret tape to the Plaintiff until 18 months after its discovery was such an egregious discovery violation that an objective person could believe that the deprivation was intentional. The turret tape, which contains exculpatory evidence in the form of a witness who called 911 to report he saw the shooter in Mr. Robinson's Criminal case, was eventually provided to the Plaintiff in October 2002. The tape was requested and received by Detective Wyse sometime in February 2001. See Memo from James Wyse and Memo from ADA Mark T. Lee attached as Exhibits A and B.

3. The exculpatory nature of this witness' statement on this turret tape is clear from the moment one hears it, given that the shooter is described as 15 to 17 years old. See CAD sheet relaying basic facts of call attached as Exhibit C. The contrast between this description and Mr. Robinson is self evident as he is was in his late thirties at the time of the shooting.

See Affidavit of Counsel Trial Counsel attached as Exhibit D.

4. The government may try to pass off this conduct by Detective Wyse as simply a lapse by a busy Detective. Plaintiff, therefore, has the right to impeach his professional credibility as well as Detective Martel, and to show, if indeed they exist, any other acts of dishonesty during cross-examination to counter any such excuse by the Boston Police and the Government to avoid an unfair presentation of the evidence and, ultimately, an unfair hearings, and trial. United States v. Baily, 834 F.2d 218 (1987); See Commonwealth v. Murchinson, 418 Mass. 58 (1994) See Due Process clause of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and Article XII of the Massachusetts Declaration of Rights, Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963), Commonwealth v. Woodward, 427 Mass. 659 (1998), Commonwealth v. Ellison, 376 Mass. 1, 22 (1978), Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 105 (1972) and Kyles v. Whitley, 115 S.Ct. 1555 (1995). See Commonwealth v. Spingel, 53 Mass. 1103 (2001) [quoting Commonwealth v. Bohannon, 376 Mass. 90 (1978)] (impeachment is be admissible "when the rule of evidence is applied in a way that deprives the accused/plaintiff of evidence that might have a significant impact on the result of his Civil Action trial.") See also Hill v. State, 54 ArkApp 380, 382 927 S.W. 2d 820 (1996) (the Appeals Court ruled that defense could impeach a police officer's credibility with specific instances of untruthfulness) Compare Commonwealth v. Hightower, 400 Mass. 267, 271 (1987).

5. Additionally, the Plaintiff Leon Robinson's Sixth Amendment right of confrontation requires that the Plaintiff be afforded an opportunity to conduct effective cross-examination of the Boston Police Officers in order to test their credibility.

Davis v. Alaska, 415 U.S. 308, 315-318 (1974) "The right to cross-examine, as well as other forms of confrontation, 'ensure [sic] that evidence admitted against an accused is reliable and subject to the rigorous adversarial testing that is the norm of Anglo-American criminal proceeding.' " Tague v. Richards, 3F.3d 1133, 1138 (1993). See also Delaware v. Van Arsdall, 475 U.S. 673 (1986) (the U.S. Supreme Court has held that "the prejudice inquiry in determining whether the Confrontation right has been violated must be on the particular witness not the outcome of the trial.")

6. Plaintiff, Leon Robinson, is entitled to the Detective's IAD file given that they are the lead investigators in Mr. Robinson's criminal and Civil case and failed to provide the exculpatory turret tape, and submitting wrongfull information in Search Warrant Affidavit in even a moderately timely fashion. The exclusion of such evidence would deprive the Plaintiff Leon Robinson, effective cross-examination of Detective Wyse and Mertel, and Plaintiff's right of Confrontation under the Sixth Amendment to the United States Constitution and Article XII of the Massachusetts Declaration of Rights and his right to due process pursuant to the Fifth Amendment and Article XII. See Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972);

See Jean v. Collins, 107 F.3d 1111, 1115 (4th Cir. 1997) (the Supreme Court's decision in Giglio also "made clear in 1972 that evidence tending to cast doubt upon the credibility of a government witness should be disclosed under Brady") See also United States v. Trevino, 89 F.3d 187, 189 (4th Cir. 1996) (favorable evidence under Brady includes not only evidence tending to exculpate plaintiff but also any evidence that adversely affects the credibility of the trial as such acts of dishonesty, if they indeed exist, will cause a jury to question the Detective's professional motives for delaying the production of this exculpatory tape, and also searching the plaintiff's apartment with a un-signed search warrant/with mis-information in the supporting Affidavit for the search warrant. It is clear that the matter concerning the search by the Defendant(S) is clearly a violation of the Plaintiff's Rights and he need's not note more as it is noted in his Civil Action Complaint, and his Opposition to the Defendant's motion to dismiss the complaint against them.

7. While Massachusetts has not adopted federal rule 608, which permits impeachment of witnesses by specific instances of untruthfulness, Plaintiff submits that this evidence goes to the core of Detective Wyse and Mertel's credibility as a Police Investigator. If there is evidence that they has engaged in misconduct before, the Court and jury should know that in order to evaluate their credibilitys in the context of a professional law enforcement investigator.

Plaintiff further submits that his request is derived from his Criminal matters, and is derived from Due Process concerns which override any state case law precedent such as Hightower. See Article XII and the Fifth Amendment, and for the search of Mr. Robinson's apartment See Article XIV of the Massachusetts Declaration of Rights and the Fourth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

Wherefore, Plaintiff moves this Honorable Court to grant's plaintiff's request: (1) that he be permitted to subpoena Both Detective James Wyse, and Detective John A. Martel's Internal Affairs files from the Boston Police Department; (2) that the files be delivered to the United States District Civil Court Clerk's Office; (3) that this Court review the files in camera to determine whether they has ever been disciplined for any acts of dishonesty, failure to produce exculpatory evidence or and if there were other search warrants, or affidavits in support was engaged in misconduct or any other acts that might effect their credibility as a police officer and witness in this case; and (4) that such discovery be disclosed to Plaintiff, Leon Robinson, prior to any further motions filed by the Defendant(s), and prior to any request for Motion to Dismiss/or ruling as well as prior to trial and Detective Wyse and Martel's testimony in this case. Plaintiff request a hearing on this motion.

911 Tape

Dear Sir:

In compliance with a directive from Judge Ball regarding the 911 tape generated on 02/21/01 relative to the Ricardo Robinson homicide I respectfully report the following information.

After conferring with Ms. Anne Marie Leterrio of Boston Operations Tape Room, relative to the above mentioned 911 tape, it was learned that the request of a copy for the 911 tape under CC# 94970 was made on 02/27/01 under control # 2001-407. It is undetermined at this time as to when I received the tape or when I listened to it. I believe because of past practices that it was shortly after the request for the tapes was made that I or detectives assigned to my squad received it and listened to it.

Attached to this report is a copy of the request form for the tape and tape journal noting when the tape request was made.

Respectfully submitted,

Re: Discovery for Leon Robinson

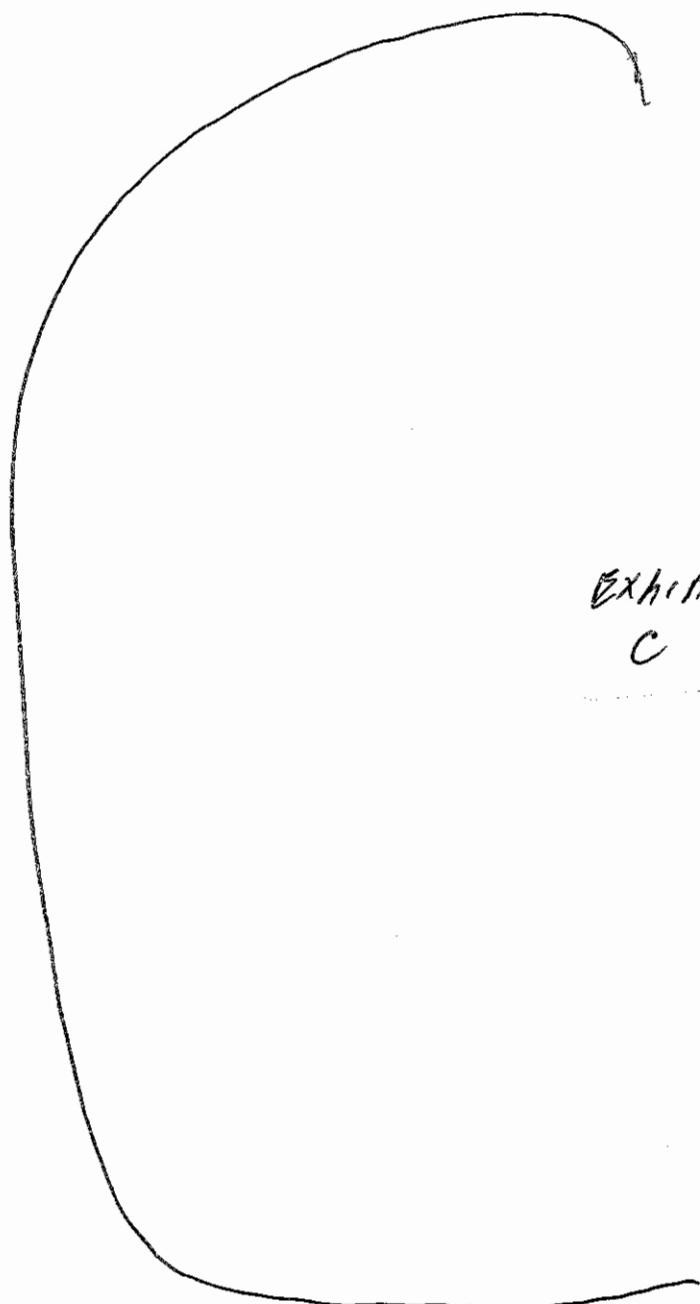

Hey Jimmy,

When you get a minute, can you please check on the following discovery items for me:

1. 911 and/or police dispatch/turret tapes;
2. Tapes of Dorinda Carter; Eddie Bishop; James Rainey; Maurice McIntosh; and Bobby Lomax;
3. Was a ballistics examination requested? If so, has a report been issued?
4. Has a report from latent prints been completed?

Thanks. Give me a call or page if you have any questions.
